

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WITH AIRBUS Secure Land Communications

STREAMWIDE (FR0010528059 _ ALSTW), the specialist in critical communication solutions, today details the agreement and strategic partnership, announced at the end of 2018, with AIRBUS Secure Land Communications (AIRBUS SLC).

AIRBUS SLC and STREAMWIDE have signed a long-term technical and commercial partnership agreement for the development and integration of STREAMWIDE's "Team on mission" and "Team on the run" technologies inside the AIRBUS Tactilon portfolio of solutions and services.

Team on mission and Team on the run solutions are "all-in-one" software solutions for secure communication and process management, meeting the current needs of government users and professionals in public safety, transport, public services and industry ("Transport, Utility and Industry_TUI), but also of all other industries and professional users around the world.

The AIRBUS Tactilon portfolio includes Tactilon Management, Tactilon Agnet and Tactilon SMVNO solutions. It also offers AIRBUS specific integration with AIRBUS Tetra and Tetrapol portfolio of networks, control rooms equipment, and end-user devices as well as AIRBUS specific user experiences.

This multi-year agreement should allow the acceleration of the development of STREAMWIDE solutions, further accentuate its current technological advance and support the growth of future revenues.

AIRBUS SLC does not own any asset or any share of STREAMWIDE Equity.
